Dear Betty and Lamar:

Both of you did an outstanding job with the Southeastern Chapter Institute on Law Library Administration in Atlanta and I want to compliment you for it. You have rendered a great service to the Chapter and the other members of AALL who attended.

Would one of you please summarize this meeting and send your summary to Mario Goderich for inclusion in the AALL President's Newsletter? Decide between yourselves which one should do this. I would like to have a copy of your summary when completed to include with any communication which we might have with the Southeastern Chapter members.

Cordially,

William C. Younger
